Spiritual, Moral, Social and Cultural Development
Including
Promoting Fundamental British Values

Context

At Fairfields, we recognise that the personal development of pupils spiritually, morally, socially and culturally plays a significant part in their ability to achieve and learn and prepares them for the opportunities, responsibilities and experience of adult life.

The promotion of pupils' spiritual, moral, social and cultural development is an integral aspect of Fairfields Curriculum. We believe that:

- Inclusion is at the heart of all we do.
 - We ensure our pupils access the curriculum at a level that reflects their strengths and needs.
 - We have inclusive classes where pupils are grouped chronologically.
 - We ensure pupils have opportunities to interact with each other throughout the school day
- Children learn best when teaching is memorable, purposeful and meaningful.
 - Our curriculum is creative, providing pupils with opportunities to use and apply their skills.
 - Our learning environments are stimulating, promoting our pupil's curiosity and enquiry.
 - We endeavour to deepen pupil's understanding so that they can apply their learning in everyday situations.
- All children can achieve.
 - Our small step developmental skills based curriculum enables our pupils to follow their own learning journey.
 - All pupils can achieve because we have accurate assessment of their starting point and clarity about their next steps in learning.
- How children learn is as important as what children learn.
 - We ensure that all our staff have an underlying understanding of how children learn and apply this to their everyday practice.
- Children learn when they are happy and secure.
 - Through our in depth knowledge and understanding of each pupil we ensure that we meet their physical, social and emotional needs in order to maximise their potential for academic learning.

We define these four areas as:

Spiritual Development: is about being reflective about beliefs, values and aspects of human experience, using imagination and creativity and developing a curiosity in learning.

Moral development: relates to recognising right and wrong in school life and outside, understanding consequences, investigating moral and ethical issues and offering reasoned views.

Social development: involves using a range of social skills in different contexts, working well with others, resolving conflicts and understanding how communities work.

Cultural development: has to do with responding positively to a range of artistic, sporting and other cultural opportunities and to understand, accept, respect and celebrate diversity.
